POEM – ONLY YOU

By Dan Coppersmith

|---|---|
| No one on Earth exists quite like you And no one is able to do what you do The person you are, the talents you bear Gifts that only you can share | The rest of the world can't see through your eyes Which is why your insight is such a prize |
| Only you have learned from the things you've done Gaining perspective, from the battles you've won | Because you are you, there are lives you affect Much more than you would ever expect |
| Times when you've lost, have been priceless too The lessons contribute to what makes you you | The things you do, the things you say Send ripples throughout the Milky Way |
| | You're unique, amazing like no one else You have the exclusive on being yourself. |

Things To Ponder

1. Do you believe that what you see is just as important as what you don't see?
2. Why do I focus on changing others rather than changing how I view others?
3. How do you think?
4. What are your beliefs about your power to change your world?
